- Backpacks are NOT allowed into theaters and opera. Purses or small bags are. Consider packing a small nylon bag (some collapse into a tiny pouch to carry a pair of shoes if you want to change from boots once inside or you want a small carry bag for items.
- PLEASE- either carry on or checked rolling luggage- not both. Too difficult to manage 2 rolling suitcases. The trip is only 5 days.

NO COSTUMES/ NO SHORTS/ NO OPEN TOE SHOES

No Madrigal attire needed

ALL activities, transportation and meals are covered. Any extra water, coffee, snacks, or shopping outside the 3 meals/day are NOT covered.

MUST BRING:

1. True winter coat (can be ski jacket), hat (or hood on coat), gloves- it can get very cold. Layers work well- bring 1 fleece or sweater for under coat. Consider bringing thin thermal underwear layer for the outdoor activities.
2. Walking boots (can be hiking boots that are water resistant). NOT rubber boots- they cause blisters and we are walking. Karen is fine if shoes are hiking/regular boots with business casual clothes. Sneakers are not business casual but can be worn for walking if no rain or snow.
3. Small travel umbrella

Attire Guidelines

All Master Classes, Broadway performances

- Khakis, cords, etc. (but not jeans) or dress/skirt-blouse; shirt, polo, turtle neck or buttoned down or sweater. If wear dress or skirt remember it is cold so consider covering your legs.

Opera- formal clothes optional; business casual is fine.

- Dressy, even semi-formal/formal but recommend wearing your walking shoes and carrying nice shoes in a small bag. Remember no back packs into the opera to change. Would need to wear formal clothes to dinner that night.

Swing Dance

- Business casual is fine but you can bring swing dance clothes and shoes if you want to

Backpack or purse carry on

- Any prescription medicines – in their original container. Inhalers and emergency meds essential if appropriate for you.
- Proper ID: passport, driver's license if 18; or school ID if under 18
- Individual spending money you want to bring for shopping or snacks.
- ATM and/or credit card if you wish. Note: airlines do not accept cash for meals or snacks on the plane.
- Toiletries for the plane. Remember the current airport security restrictions on liquids and acceptable volume (was a maximum 3 oz container). Bring a chap stick
- Empty, re-usable bottle for water. Can't have liquid going through security, but after security can fill up. Very useful to have during, master classes and entire trip. We will not be buying extra water so please keep your bottle filled.
- Electronic/technology things you want, including chargers, earbuds, etc. REMEMBER- no external batteries allowed in checked luggage. Students- avoid bringing computers- you will have no time to do school work. Smaller electronics are fine.
- Carry your winter coat for the plane- it is often cold on the airplane and you will need it when we arrive in NYC.

Luggage

- Clothes & toiletries for 5 days according to guidelines.
- Pack smartly and think layers. Try not to over or under pack for comfort. Leave room in suitcase if you want to buy something.

Travel day clothes

- SMF- NYC: It is an overnight flight. Be comfortable but be prepared to change quickly into business casual on arrival. We will have a short turn- around time when arriving in hotel to store luggage before heading out for the day. We will have a break at check in around 4PM to get settled.
 - For those students who wear contact lenses- consider wearing your glasses so you can sleep on the overnight flight.
- NYC- SMF: You will have time to change into comfortable clothes either before we leave on the bus or at the airport before checking luggage. You can be comfortable for the plane.
